STAT

It has come to my understanding that a constituent of mine, [redacted] has applied for a position with the Foreign Broadcast Information Service. I support [redacted] in his effort to secure the position and I feel he would make an excellent employee.

STAT

I believe [redacted] is academically qualified and has had the type of hands-on experience that would enhance his translating and interpreting ability. He has spent two years living in South Africa and he has spent five years teaching Afrikaans.

STAT

In short, [redacted] is a very bright young man with fine academic credentials and good experience in the Afrikaans language and also in understanding the South African culture. I think he would represent your office well. I recommend your favorable consideration of Mr. [redacted]
